

ACTIVITY

Find the impostor questions

LIST OF EXAMPLES OF QUESTIONS

ACCUSATORY QUESTIONS

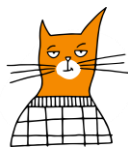

1. Don't you think you have spent too much money on the construction of the roundabout?
2. What is the municipal administration hiding by not making public the data relating to cleaning the river water?
3. Doesn't it seem to you that the data should have been online for a long time?
4. Don't you think there is something wrong with the management of public works, which is carried on without any public communications?
5. Don't you think that a public administration that does not publish data as required by law is less transparent?

RHETORICAL QUESTIONS

1. Do you have the common good at heart?
2. Don't you think the lack of transparency within public administrations is wrong?
3. Do you think corruption could be a problem for society?
4. Will you strive to make this city a better place?
5. What do you think about the importance of transparency and the relevance of the fight against corruption?

GOOD QUESTIONS

1. By when do you foresee publishing the data on the implementation of this project?
2. How will you ensure that the data is accessible to people?

3. Who will be responsible for re-processing, publishing the data, and interacting with the community?
4. Are you committed to making data publicly available in an open, accessible, and multi-source format, e.g. by creating a transparency portal?
5. Would you be interested in collaborating with our monitoring community to set up training on legality, transparency, and corruption for staff in your administration?

